WE ARE MACMILLAN.
CANCER SUPPORT

Macmillan Coffee Morning
High Halstow Memorial Hall

Save the Date

25th September (10:00am - 3:00pm)

Nearly everyone knows someone that needs or has needed help and support from:

Macmillan Cancer Care

This is why my friends and I for the last 11 years have:

With Your Help and Support held a coffee morning and so far High Halstow has raised £6411 which has been gratefully received by Macmillan Cancer Care.

Please come and join us again this year. We will have all the usual homemade cakes, sausage rolls, cheesecakes, tea and coffee. New for this year is a 'Ploughman's Lunch' in the hope that you won't have to rush off.

All the usual 'Pick-a-Duck', Raffle, Jams, Local Honey, and much more will be there.
If you are unable to come along and would like to donate, then I can arrange to deliver a box of cakes to you. Phone Ann on 251914.

We look forward to seeing you again on the 25th September for our 12th Coffee Morning.

An Evening with John Lyons with special guest, Matthew Crane

Come and have a great night out on Saturday 21st November 2015 at High Halstow Village Hall, where we are honoured to have the TV Star, actor, John Lyons, who was best known for playing "Sgt George Toolan" in ITV's hugely successful series, "A Touch of Frost". John will be giving an amazing talk on a career spanning over 50 years, including 17 years with Sir David Jason on the long running show. The talk will include film clips and outtakes and many amusing stories from his time in "On The Buses", "George & Mildred" & "The Sweeney" to name but a few. If that wasn't enough, Special Guest, Matthew Crane, our very own award winning singer from High Halstow, will be performing a medley of many of his favourite songs. The evening will then finish with a Q & A Session, where the audience can fire impromptu questions at John, who will try his best to answer them for you. This could be very amusing!! Tickets are priced at £10 each, which includes refreshments, and can be purchased by telephoning 01634 251126 or from the High Halstow Village Shop.

Allotments

As you may be aware the Parish Council have a number of allotments which are rented out each year. There is currently an available allotment, if you think you would be interested in taking it over please contact Chris Watson on 256529 or email me at chris.watson123@btinternet.com.

Memorial Hall Update

The July Quiz Night was the last one that was held to raise money exclusively towards the upkeep of the Memorial Hall. Thank you for all your support, over the last 5/6 years since Pat left and I took over as Chairperson. The Hall Committee will continue to raise funds in other ways and we look forward to your help and support in the future, if it is needed. There will be an ongoing maintenance plan to make sure that the hall continues to stay in good condition, despite its age (95 years).

I would like to thank all the committee members that support me in keeping the Memorial Hall looking as good as it does both inside and out.

Ann Smith
Chairperson
HH Memorial Hall

High Halstow Gardening Club

We did not have a meeting in August which is our normal practice but we are busy preparing for our Annual Show on Saturday 29th August. We are hoping for another successful show with plenty of exhibits and visitors. The full results of the show will be available for the next publication of The High Halstow Times.

Our talk on Tuesday 8th September will be by Martin Newcombe on 'Mushrooms and Toadstools'. Our meetings are a good opportunity to meet fellow gardening enthusiasts with a raffle and tea or coffee. Guests are welcome at any of our meetings with a charge of £1.50.

Enquiries to 01634 221579 or hhdgc@outlook.com

Visit by Medical Detection Dog

We did not have a meeting last month but had afternoon tea at the Hogarth pub in Grain. This was attended and thoroughly enjoyed by the majority of our members. This month we will learn all about a Medical Detection Dog with Sharon Lynn and of course her dog. If you would like to find out more then come along on Wednesday 2nd September for 7:30 in the Memorial Hall.

We would love to see you.

High Halstow Friendly Club

We were out and about in July with a trip by minibus to Deal. We had good weather although a little windy, and of course good company. The August meeting saw us hearing all about Aloe Vera products accompanied by scones and jam. September will be another outing this time to Greenwich, giving us the chance to do some early Christmas shopping.

We meet at 2pm on the 4th Wednesday of the month in the Memorial Hall and all are welcome.

High Halstow Hikers

Our August walk took place on a warm, dry Sunday and was relatively local, mainly taking in the coast around Allhallows. A dozen of us met outside the British Pilot and took the public footpath across the marsh to the seawall. We then followed the path to the east to reach Yantlet Creek, a great birdwatching spot for waders, wildfowl and other seabirds. The tide was racing out of the creek to leave a variety of these birds across the emerging mud and the sandy beach opposite. On that eastern side there is an impressive 8-metre tall London Stone that formerly marked the boundary of the jurisdiction of the City of London. It was disappointing to find that on the western side the plaque had been removed from the memorial commemorating the drowning of Geoffrey Hammond, a local artist and naturalist, at the spot in 1975. We walked on round the creek and had the option to make a loop across the marshes but decided to return by the same route having faced down a large herd of cattle that seemed very interested in us. We continued the walk along the seafront past the large, and popular fishing lake and through the busy holiday park to the now underused yacht club. A footpath at the point took us inland and allowed us to return to our cars past the stables that sit in front of the well-hidden Slough Artillery Fort. The walk of between 5 and 6 miles over 2 hours was pretty much ideal for the warm weather and had numerous little surprises for those that had not previously walked the route. The only downside was the hour of cleaning on two consecutive nights that Tag (hairy cocker spaniel) needed after his ventures into every available ditch, mud bank, reed bed, bramble bush etc.

The September walk will be led by Mike Davies and looks excellent. It will be a circular "Literary" walk around Higham with a focus on spots related to Charles Dickens. The walk will start at Higham Railway Station at the bottom of School Lane (ME37JQ) at 10.00 on Sunday 13th September. All are welcome. Enquiries on this occasion to Mike at mikeplotters@me.com or 01634 271651.

In October we are planning a new venture with walks around the Rye area on both the afternoon of Saturday 10th and morning of Sunday 11th October with an overnight stop around Rye for those interested. People may join the walk on either day or both and either stay overnight or not. Please let Mitchell know of your plans (mitch.dowsett@btopenworld.com or 01634 254428).

High Halstow Village Hall

Refurbishment Phase Three (or What Would We Do Without Ray Collins?)

The handover for Phase Three should have happened as you get this months High Halstow Times. The Hall Committee is extremely pleased with this phase of the works, which has seen a new main double door entrance to the side of the hall, a new kitchen in place where the old Doctors Surgery was, a disabled ramp leading into the new entrance and a new fire escape in anticipation of the stairs to be fitted in phase four have all been completed for this phase.

Ray Collins needs your thanks for carrying out all the additional fittings, painting etc as well as project managing the builders when they were on site. It seems like we only have to partially think that something needs doing and Ray is there like a shot completing it with no fuss. He has saved thousands of pounds with his dedication and commitment for which we are extremely grateful. We would also like to thank June Collins for the loan of her husband and we promise to give him back once Phase Eleven has been completed.

We would like to think the Village is happy with the progress of the Hall works to date and believe the downstairs is pretty much completed.

Refurbishment Phase Four

The Hall Committee have completed a draft specification for Phase Four, which will be complete, the stairs and associated works and we are trying to raise sufficient funds in order to place the order this side of Christmas.
