Cinderella

Act One

Scene

- 1 The Prince returns to the Ferry Boat Inn ,
Let the panto's magic begin!
- 2 The King & Queen are the Prince's guide
to find a suitable Royal bride.
- 3 A Palace footman pays a call to bring invitations to the ball.
- 4 If those sisters want to be a beautiful sight,
their tempers & flab they both must fight!
- 5 Good against evil in a leafy setting,
I think right will win. What's the betting?
- 6 Will Cinders get to go to the ball?
There's magic going on in this village hall!

INTERVAL

ACT TWO

SCENE

- 1 We're waiting for that clock to chime,
Oh Cinders, it's a race against time.
- 2 This place is a right old mess.
Who'll clean it up - Can you guess?
- 3 Whose dainty foot will fit the shoe?
and some unstinting heroic help too!
- 4 The happy couple, together at last
are congratulated by the rest of the cast!

Dramarama

It's Panto Time Again!

Here we are in the year 2000 already, and it seems like the beginning of 1999 has only just gone!

Doesn't time fly? As our summer show was later than usual last year, it seems like we've had weeks rather than months to get this show off the ground. Christmas and the millennium celebrations in-between haven't dampened the enthusiasm that is still so to the fore within Dramarama. We welcome Ian Stone back as our resident orchestra and also some new faces. When Simon got engaged to Michelle Whybrow, little did he know he'd be acquiring a pair of tights and a singing voice along with his fiancée (look out for those lovely shapely legs!)

After working so hard behind stage last show, Ricky Norris has graduated onto front stage this time, Francesca Goodman, Adam Dewar and Jamie Lawson also join us as excellent singers and dancers.

Without the commitment that all the cast give and also all of you that buy tickets and come along to watch, these productions would not be possible.

The cast have had to put up with my ranting and ravings over the years, and I would like to say a huge thank-you to each and everyone of them for making my dreams and visions a reality.
