

DRAMARAMA

PROUDLY PRESENTS

Robin Hood

PROGRAMME: 30P

PROCEEDS TO THE HUGH FUND

Robin Hood

Welcome to Dramarama's 16th production.

In this production we welcome Katie Hayward on to stage - good luck Katie. Margaret Eaton has decided to take a back seat with regards to prompting but continues to chase us (literally!) to pay our subs each week. Keep it up Margaret what would we do without you to keep us on our toes!

Lesley Munday has taken over Margaret's role as prompt (and the best of luck Lesley!).

As usual I have last minute worries like, "is it funny?" or 'will the audience like it?'. However it's usually too late to do anything about it and the cast reassure me that it will be 'alright on the night'. I do however have faith in the cast that what they produce will be to their best ability. What more could I ask for, accept that they and you as an audience find it enjoyable and entertaining.

Robin Hood - Fact or Fiction?

Earliest references...

The year 1377 is the earliest reference to Robin Hood, in William Langland's poem, "The vision of William concerning Piers Plowman". Other historical evidence places Robin anywhere between 1190 - 1307. Some ballads mention that Robin Hood was born in Locksley town, Nottinghamshire.

Sherwood Forest...

Legend has it that Robin lived in Sherwood Forest which in his time covered roughly 100,000 acres. Robin is thought to have become an outlaw there by 1225.

His band of merry men apparently resided with Robin in the forest, robbing passersby on Watling Street near the River Went, a street leading straight to London in the South. Robin is famous for his gallantry, robbing the rich to feed the poor and fighting against injustice and tyranny. Robin used a longbow as his weapon made of the English "yew" tree.

The wedding...

St. Mary's Church in Edwinstowe is said to be the "church in the forest" where Robin married Marian.

How did he die?

Some say Robin was killed by his princess cousin, in Yorkshire. She was having an affair and bled Robin to death under the guise of medicinal healing to keep him out of the way of her indiscretions. Another version suggests a monk who was brought to help Robin actually murdered him.

Kirkclee Priory is where the supposed grave of Robin Hood can still be seen to this day. A medieval gravestone was found there bearing a partial inscription "here lies Robard Hude..." The legend of Robin Hood also suggests that after his death, Maid Marian returned to Little Dunmow Priory and was poisoned by the king.
