RECREATION HALL, HIGH HALSTOW

Aladdin

January 2012

Welcome to our Pantomime. It has been a struggle to get our show off of the ground this year due to some setbacks. Thanks to the kindness of Mrs Sanford and High Halstow Primary School, we have rehearsed every week in the school hall whilst the refurbishment started in the Recreation Hall. Without a stage, it is hard to get the 'feel' of space and placing, but everyone has soldiered on!

Then we had the news that our pianist Ian Stone, had been taken ill. Unfortunately, he is unable to play for us this time. We all wish him a continued recovery and hope that he may be able to accompany us in the summer show. Thanks must go to Matthew Crozer who provided guitar backing tracks at short notice.

This panto, we welcome two new members to our group, Maddie and Bethan Harris (you may recognise their Dad as the Genie of the lamp!), we hope you enjoy your first show girls.

Thank you all for your continued support, as, without you all, there would be no Dramarama.

Please, sit back, relax and enjoy the show.

ACT 1

- Prologue - Two evil characters let us greet, we're in for a hiss and booing treat.
- Scene 1 - In old Peking a Market place where Aladdin faces a Royal chase.
- Scene 2 - In the Washing Well Laundry mayhem is rife, and Aladdin meets the love of his life.
- Scene 3 - We enter a mysterious, magical cave where a magic lamp is about to be saved.
- Scene 4 - The palace gardens are a wonderful sight and Kung Fu moves are the order of the night.

INTERVAL

ACT 2

- Scene 1 - Widow Twanky starts her cooking and Syco is duped while he isn't looking!
- Scene 2 - A smelly bird causes offence to four panto people who are really quite dense.
- Scene 3 - A husband to be the Princess must choose, but Honeysuckle and the Emperor have differing views.
- Scene 4 - Aladdin loses his magic lamp to the nasty, conniving, evil camp.
- Scene 5 - Aladdin triumphs and all is right. We'll celebrate a Royal wedding tonight.
