

The red dog pub, a relaxing country pub and restaurant, families are welcome.

QUEENS DIAMOND
JUBILEE MONDAY 4TH
JUNE 2012!!!!

High Halstow And News From Around Kent

The RSPB logo, featuring a stylized bird in flight over water, with the letters "RSPB" in white on a blue background.

Zumba! Keep fit and healthy and try some new moves, Monday 6.00pm- 7.00pm at the recreation hall, £5.00 per session.

RSPB RESERVE!!!

RSPB Reserve is one of the most peaceful places where you can relax and chill. This is also a place of outstanding beauty, and has one of the magnificent plants you can ever imagine. So if you are angry come down to the RSPB Reserve and be one of the first to relax. That is not all, if you like walking, or have a dog you need to walk, then come down to the RSPB reserve. It will astound you with how much fun you can have, you normally would think that it is boring when it really is amazing! Did you know that also in the reserve there are loads of birds to look at swooping through the sky like feathers falling from a tree. This is a good thing for bird lovers to do because you can catch some fabulous images of the birds.

THE PLAY PARK!

The play park is the best park ever; it has a basket swing that swings not only up and down but around and around. This play park also delivers a whole lot of other amazing things to do. It is a perfect place to walk a dog on a rainy day, Guess why?, because it has a massive field and you can even watch cricket on a bench in the park, also you can play football. When you play football there is a goal and some gravel pitches. It is not only a football area you can play basket ball there as well, because it has a net for you to score in.

NEARBY PLACES TO VISIT:

- Rochester Castle
- Upnor Castle
- Royal Engineers Museum
- Chatham Dockyard
- Hoo Swimming Pool
- Shorne Country Park
- Bluewater
- The Strand
- Riverside Country Park.